

Let's Make Health Care Work for everyone!

Bargaining Priorities:

More than 12,000 CUPE health workers want to achieve improvements at the bargaining table to make their work lives happier and healthier.

The four priority areas are:

- Respectful and fair treatment by employers
- No contracting-out/ privatization of our public health system
- Healthy workplaces

Improved workload language

Stronger protection against harassment

Real solutions to recruitment and retention problems

- Improved family/ caregiver leave

The Canadian Union of Public Employees