

BARGAINING COMMUNIQUE

Communique #2 October 15, 2004

The CUPE Health Care Council, which bargains on behalf of 12000 health care workers in five regional health authorities, continued bargaining with SAHO on October 12, 13 and 14, 2004 in Saskatoon. The exchange of proposals occurred when bargaining began on September 28th.

Preliminary discussions are nearing completion and the Bargaining Committee looks forward to entering the next phase of more meaningful discussions with the employer.

The agreement between CUPE's Health Care Council and SAHO expired on March 31, 2004. The two sides will next meet in Regina on November 2, 3, and 4, 2004.

